MISCELLANEOUS READING. MARRIAGE EXTRAORDINARY.

The English papers chronicle the marriage at Cheltenham, of the Right Hon, Stephen R. Lushington, formerly Governor at Bombay, and one of her Majesty's Privy Counsellers, for twenty years chairman of committees in the House of Commons, son-in-law of the late General Lord Harris of Belmont, the hero of Seringapatam, and grand uncle to the present lord. The bride was a young lady, rather good looking, a little out of her teens, and the bridegroom, who was remarksbly brisk and frisky in manner, and juvenile in attire, has passed the allotted period of three-score and ten by filteen years. Born in the year of grace 1783, he was consequently in his eighty-fifth year. This matrimonial escapade has given rise to a good deal of comment, as the gentleman is connected with

An American sejourning at Rome; writes to Dwight's Journal of Music, as follows: "Perhaps the only thing in which I am disappointed in Italy, is in its music, and the musical cultivation of its inhabitants .-It is true that even the smallest towns have opera houses, but the style of performance is poor. Then, like many other people, I had expected that in Italy music was in the domestic circle brought aimest to a professional perfection and that every other young man was a Mario, and almost every young woman a Grisi. But I find myself much mistaken. As a general thing there as pears to be no more real taste for music here than in the United States; certainly there are not half or a quarter so many piano fortes or hand orgaus in proportion to the population, if that is to be taken as an index."

FIVE CHILDREN AT ONE BIRTH. On the morning of Monday last, a woman named Elspet Gardon, residing in Rothes, gave birth to three male and two female children.
